

Legal Issues Behind Caregiving

Establishing a precedent when it comes to the care of a loved one is essential, especially with the legal aspects of finances and health care. Join ActivCare Living for an informative presentation when dealing with legal responsibilities for your love one in need of care.

Topics will include:

- Be upfront with your relative about your feelings behind the decisions you make, and allow for them to offer their advice should they be of sound mind.
- Talk with other family members about the intentions of your loved one and ask their advice if should feel unsure about any matter.
 - And more
